Winter Showcase 2013: Colorado Ballet Academy will be holding a Winter Program dress rehearsal and performance on Sunday, January 27, 2013. This performance will be performed by enrolled fall 2012 Academy students in the Ballet Program Levels 4 and up. There is a one-time production fee of $100 for each student participating in the Program. Each additional class that the student performs with is at no additional cost. The participation fee covers the cost of the lighting, costume rentals, theater rentals, and other fees. The Winter Program Participation Form and fee is due by Wednesday, November 28, 2012 to the Academy office, or by special arrangement. All participation fees are non-refundable after the start of the spring 2013 semester. Participation fees may be refunded in the form of tuition credit, punch cards, original form of payment, or trade. Any photos taken during dress rehearsal, class rehearsals, or during the performance may be used by Colorado Ballet for public relations and marketing purposes. Please return this form in person, by email, or by fax to Colorado Ballet Academy.
