Scholarship Policies: Scholarships are available to accepted students in the ballet programs at Colorado Ballet Academy. Scholarship awards are at the sole discretion of Colorado Ballet and are awarded for the entire Academy year as well as single sessions. Scholarships are good towards tuition and may or may not include registration fees, but do not include production, costume, or audition fees. Awards are based on the overall Academy budget for any year and can range from partial or full tuition awards. Applications must be received by Colorado Ballet Academy by August 12, 2013 for fall consideration. Applications after the deadline will be considered on a rolling basis and in the event that there are additional awards available. Incomplete forms will not be considered. All successful students will be notified of awards by email or by letter. Scholarship recipients are expected to abide by all Academy policies set forth in the Student Policies. Non-compliance can result in revocation of the scholarship. Notifications will be made to all applicants by August 19, 2013. Scholarship auditions may be required for applicant- please check the website or with the Scholarship Administer for scholarship audition details: Phoebe.Coleman@ColoradoBallet.org.
